In the center, a Google Chrome browser window displays an email from Microsoft Corporation [US] at <https://outlook.office.com/owa/projection.aspx>. The email is titled 'Rockwell Automation Software Order Confirmation [RA Order Number:XXXXXXXX]'. It contains the following text:

Rockwell Order Number: XXXXXXXXXX
Your Order Number: XXXXXXXXXX
Comments: This is a Demo Electronic Software Delivery Order Email

There is a red 'Download Now' button. Below the text, it lists 'Line Item: 0001' with a quantity of 1 and 1 install. A table follows:

Qty	Catalog Number	Description	Version	Serial Number	Product Key
1	9324-RLD600ENE	Studio 5000 Full Edition ESD Software	24.00.00	2445K01575	R7U6J-NDV9T

Below the table, there are links to 'View' and 'Download'. The email also includes a section for 'Term-based, Leased and/or Subscription-based Software' with instructions on when to activate and a note about rehosting and reactivating software.

At the bottom of the browser window, it says 'Downloading Your Software Products'. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the time as 12:00 PM on 10/21/2016.
